MISSIONARY TO HONDURAS

"I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work." John 9:4

October 2025 – December 2025

Dear Friends,

November is my favorite month here in our ministry because it's our missions emphasize month. My route was assigned the country of Belgium. I always enjoy learning about other cultures, and the missionaries that have given their lives to serve there. Our drama and song are always much needed reminders of the need to go to feel others. Sometimes we get complacent. But there are people all around us who are dying and going to hell. You don't have to come to Honduras to be a missionary. Hand a tract to your neighbor, to your coworkers, or your server at a restaurant. What are YOU doing to bring others to Christ?

Our school was also able to take a trip to El Salvador for a Leadership Conference. Pastor Paul Chappell from Lancaster Baptist Church in California (where I received my master's degree) was able to come and preach. Not only was the conference a huge blessing with the preaching in the different sessions, but it was also good to think back on my days at West Coast Baptist College where I learned the power of prayer and I began the habit of reading my Bible daily.

On the first Friday of December, we have one of my favorite school events – the Christmas play. It's not my favorite because it's some amazing performance. It's my favorite because it has the biggest turnouts of the year. All the classes sing Christmas songs in English and Spanish with the kids acting out the Christmas story between each class. This past year we had over 500 parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, brothers, and sisters who showed up to see their student sing. Pastor Samuel always gives a clear salvation message. Some years, a few of the visitors are saved. Other years, like this year, we may not have had any salvations, but seeds were planted! I'm so thankful that we are still able to share the Gospel with those around us. The Christmas play is also my favorite school event because I get to see a lot of former students. They come to see their younger siblings, cousins, etc. who are current students. I love being able to see them, talk to them about their lives, and catch up on what they are doing. Many of them specifically look for me at this event, just to tell me about much they miss my class or our school or even our rules! I love to hear about where God has led them.

One of the last things I did before Christmas was get Christmas gifts for my bus kids. Some of them have been faithful all year long, so I decided to do something extra special for them. They got their very own Bibles for Christmas! Andres and his brother were especially happy. Andres made a profession of faith over a year ago, but has never had his own Bible. However, he carefully copied the memory verse out of someone else's Bible each week so he could work on it. He couldn't stop smiling after he opened his gift!

Thank you for your prayers! Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
