Ministry Report of November-December 2025

Dearest Pastor Mark and Praying Partners,

We praise God for His goodness & faithfulness to us & in the ministry here in Calatrava for the year 2025. Truly, the Lord gives fruits to our labors & answers to our prayers.

Before the year ends, praise God! Four of our consistent attenders: Aljon, Joseph, Jecelyn & Anabel decided to follow the Lord in water baptism last December 22. We praise the Lord for His precious words working in their lives. Friends, help us pray for their spiritual growth.

We also gave the newly baptized new bibles. We are encouraging them to read their bibles & have a prayer time to God every day. We also thank the Lord for providing new bibles for them.

Water Baptism

Jesus Kids Christmas Program

We also thank God for our Jesus Kids Ministry. We praise God for blessing our church with small kids & some juniors who are always excited to come to church & study God's word. We also thank God for His provision in our feeding ministry. We are blessed to cook & prepare food for the children.

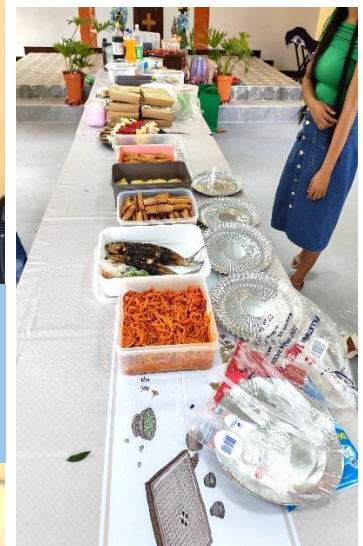

The kids also had their Christmas program last December 20. We shared to them the story of Jesus birth & explained to them that Jesus Christ is the greatest gift of all. Sister Sarah led them in prayer of acceptance, too & praise God some of the new kids attending accepted the Lord Jesus Christ in their hearts as their Lord & personal Savior. We have prepared snacks, individual gifts to them (biscuits & water bottles) & they also had their exchange gifts. The kids enjoyed their Christmas program & we thank God for giving us a good fellowship with them.

We had our Christmas Sunday last December 21 & we praise God for 11 visitors that day. We also shared to them the gospel & praise God for some professions of faith. We are also blessed with the word of God preached & we thank the Lord for His goodness in our lives throughout the year. We also had a simple lunch after the service, some games, exchange gifts & simple gift giving. Friends, thank you once again to your consistent prayers & financial support to us & in the ministry here. God bless us! Happy New Year to all! From: Trinity Baptist Church
